

UNIONS WRECK MUCH BUSINESS

Head of Big Ship Building Concern Makes Charges Against Union Organizations.

SUIT IN COURT

Claims Workmen Are Bossed by Men Who Draw Pay Without Any Work.

New York, Oct. 6.—Labor unionism has driven the Morse Iron Works and Dry Dock company of this city into the hands of a receiver, depriving 2,200 men of work, cutting them off from weekly wages aggregating $23,000, and closing the $2,000,000 plant, perhaps the largest of its kind on the Atlantic coast. This is not so, Mr. Morse declares, because the union scale of wages was refused, but because the men would not do any work while they had union overseers, who permitted them to dawdle while getting full wages. The walking delegates, declare the officers of the company, would not let the union men work under overseers representing the employers, who discharged those that shirked the labor that was due.

Employer Is Ruined. South Brooklyn will feel the closing of the works seriously. They occupy several acres at the foot of Fifty-eighth street and about them are clustered about 400 dwellings hitherto occupied by employees in the dock yard. These now will be deserted.

E. P. Morse, president and founder of the company, who has built up an enormous business from nothing, beginning as workman himself, declares that the fruits of his nineteen years of earnest and successful efforts have been snatched from him without a fault of his own, in spite of every effort to meet the demands of his employees within the bounds of what seemed to him to be justice.

Blames Walking Delegates. Another effect of the closing of the Morse company will be to prevent the consummation of its absorption by the Roach Shipbuilding and Engine company. Recently the Morse company agreed to acquire the plant of the Roach company, situated at the foot of East Ninth street, in this borough.

"Just as soon as the unions discovered our yards full of work," said Mr. Morse, "strikes began. Walking delegates were as familiar with the terms of our contracts as we, and knew they could force us to accept many of their demands."

Order General Strike. "For instance, we found men loafing—even asleep—on the steamship Styria about a year ago, and they openly boasted that they had not lifted a hammer during the day, and that their organization did not have to work unless they so desired. We removed the foreman and got a trusted man to look after our interests. A strike was ordered not only on that ship but on all our works. We were forced to give in, because millions of capital were at stake. We replaced the foreman and his men discharged from the Styria. It is just there we made our mistake."

"The port of New York is losing all its shipbuilding trade through unionism."

SWEEPING INJUNCTION FAVORS THE OPEN SHOP

Ohio Judge Restrains Workmen From Boycotting Printing Office or Any of Its Patrons.

Hamilton, O., Oct. 6.—The Republican Publishing company of this town, which conducts an extensive job printing business and publishes a daily newspaper, secured a sweeping order of injunction from Judge Belden against Hamilton Typographical union No. 193, the Hamilton Co-operative Trades and Labor council, the Non-partisan Printing company and the individual members of each. In addition it brought action for $50,000 damages against the individual members of these bodies.

The complaint sets up the fact that the plaintiff has no dispute whatever with its employees, but solely because the company refuses to discharge all its nonunion men and cease to run an open shop the defendants have declared a boycott upon it. It is further alleged that the union, failing to accomplish its end, declared a boycott upon firms that are advertising in the Republican or patronizing the job department of the company.

The sweeping order of injunction granted by Judge Belden not only forbids any further boycotting, picketing or intimidation of the plaintiff or its employees, but extends the same protection to all of its patrons. This checks a plan of the union men to picket the leading stores of the city, it is said. Judge Belden cited all the union men involved to appear in his court.

BULGARIA READY FOR ANY EVENT

CAN MOBILIZE ARMY WITHIN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.

IS MAKING READY FOR WAR

Turkey Must Move First, However, in the Game, So They Say.

(Special By Scripps-McRae.) Sofia, Oct. 6.—It is rumored this morning that the Bulgarian army is in prime condition for any eventuality. The reports are that the second and third lines of reserves will be called out before the end of the month.

Everything Ready. Premier Petroff is quoted as saying that it would now be possible to mobilize the entire army with reserves within forty-eight hours. No such move will, however, be taken unless Turkey should precipitate affairs by being aggressive.

TRADE GROWING IN THE PHILIPPINES

Annual Report Shows That Prices Have Advanced During the Last Fiscal Year.

Manila, Oct. 6.—The customs report for the fiscal year 1903, published today, shows the finances of the Philippines to be in excellent condition. The imports of merchandise, exclusive of coin, were less by $253,673 than those of 1902, while the exports increased $8,862,700 over the preceding year.

The balance of trade against the islands in 1902 was $8,656,133, while this year there is a balance in their favor of $530,180.

The total foreign trade, exclusive of United States government importations, in the two years was as follows: 1902—Imports, $33,420,680; exports, $24,733,887. This shows a gain in foreign trade of $8,709,027.

Mexican Coin Disappearing. During the year 1902 the imports of coin silver exceeded the exports by $6,229,448, while in 1903, the exports exceeded the imports by $4,064,306, thus showing that there has been a rapid departure of the Mexican silver coin since the introduction of the new currency authorized by congress.

HENRY HOWARD NEW AMBASSADOR

King Edward Said to Favor This Man as Herbert's Successor.

London, Oct. 6.—Sir Henry Howard, the British minister at The Hague is reported to be the king's choice for the post of ambassador at Washington, made vacant by the death of Sir Michael Herbert. Lady Howard was formerly Cecelia Kings of Washington.

The next likeliest selection from the service is said to be Sir Arthur Nicholson, British minister to Morocco, who is regarded as being in the line of an embassy. It is well understood, however, that the king may go outside the regular service, as he did in sending Sir Francis Bertie, then assistant undersecretary for foreign affairs, as ambassador to Rome.

A STRANGE STORY

Awful and Weird in All Its Details—A Tale of Horror and Full of Pathos, But Nevertheless a True Story of Actual Happenings.

Imagine, if you can, four of Janesville's solid citizens with two from an adjoining village, a constable, a justice of the peace, two doctors, well known in the medical profession, an aged sexton of a country church yard and his assistant, grouped about an open grave in a nearby cemetery, at the mystic hour of half past two. The night is dark and the trees moan and sigh in the night wind. Gently the coffin in the grave is raised and reverently carried to a small tool house. Slowly the men carry their burden. Reverently they bow their heads as the lid of the coffin is raised and the face of a beautiful woman is disclosed. Then imagine the doctors bending over the body. Think of them as seeking for some clue that the dead woman has come to her death by foul means. See the party leaving the cemetery in the cold gray dawn and driving back to the city, leaving the doctors to their horrid task of exploring farther the cause of death in the little tool shed by the dim light of a lantern with the faint glow of the coming day peeping through the shuttered windows.

A Real Scene. This is a real scene. A scene that was enacted in a cemetery near Janesville within the past forty days. The men are real men who in every day life walk the streets of Janesville and the body was that of a young and beautiful woman who died recently under the circumstances that prompted her parents and near relatives to demand an investigation. It is a sad story—a story of a young woman's love for the man who became her husband; her meeting in the great city hospital; her marriage at her father's home with flowers and joy and merriment; her life with her husband, a struggling professional man in a small town; her sickness and her death under circumstances that made her friends suspicious; and the final chapter, the coroner's jury and their verdict.

Sad, Oh, So Sad. Imagine a young girl full of life and happiness; her meeting in the great city with a man whose love she won and to whom she gave her love in return. Their life of happiness that followed—until the little child came; a life whose gentle spirit lingered but a few hours; the suffering of the young mother and her death amid such tortures as only woman can suffer; her interment in the little country churchyard and the grief of her husband; his disappearance from his home; the selling of all his belongings and the loss of all trace of him by his wife's relatives.

Then come the suspicions on the part of the relatives that all was not right; that the daughter, the idol of their hearts, had not died from natural causes. Then come the appeal to the authorities and the results; the coroner's jury and their verdict: "The deceased came to death from causes unknown." Nor was this all. The weird ride of the jurors to the grave. The scene at the cemetery wrapped in darkness with but the faint light of one lantern. A scene never to be forgotten by the twelve men who participated. Meanwhile the loving husband, unconscious of all the proceedings, is wandering in a far off country, seeking forgetfulness of his awful loss of wife and child.

EXTRA GUARD FOR ROOSEVELT AT THE HERBERT MEMORIAL

Action of Armed Crank Yesterday Makes These Precautions Almost a Necessity. (Special By Scripps-McRae.) Washington, Oct. 6.—Arrangements have been made for an extra guard for the president at the memorial services in honor of the late British Ambassador Herbert.

The precautions are the result of the attempt made by an armed crank, Peter Elliott, at the White House yesterday. After this every visitation from these erratic gentry the presidential body guard increased, for, as a rule, the publication of one attempt is almost immediately followed by the appearance of other cranks. Elliott is the fifth crank who has made an appearance at the White House since President Roosevelt returned from Oyster Bay.

Chicago Couple Married: William G. Wright and Grace Marion Rehm, of Chicago secured a marriage license from Clerk Starr Saturday. Charles J. Munchow and Gus-Manthers of Janesville also received a license to wed.

CHANGE POSITION ON THE RULING

CENTRAL LABOR UNION MADE PROVISIONS LAST NIGHT.

FAVORS PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

While They Stand by Their Original Resolution They Amend It To Fit the Case.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The Central Labor union which was the first labor organization to adopt resolutions denouncing Roosevelt for his stand on the open-shop question, have, in a manner, backed down from their position.

Second Resolution. At a meeting last night they made a second resolution declaring that their intention to stand by their first resolution regardless of the interest or advancement of any individual. This is taken to mean they can support Roosevelt if they see fit.

VAN COUYER'S MAP NOW ACCEPTED

Narrative, However, Objected to Says Council for Alaskan Commission.

London, Oct. 6.—At today's session of the Alaskan boundary commission Mr. Dickinson of American counsel continued his argument. He contended that Great Britain's claim that Van Couver's narrative was relied upon by the original negotiators was not substantiated by the evidence submitted by British counsel. Van Couver's map was accepted by the United States, but not his narrative.

Mr. Dickinson contended that the line through Portland Channel was always understood to run through the middle of the channel itself and not along its side.

Continuing, Mr. Dickinson maintained that the British argument at the best only raised a doubt as to whether or not the "Portland Canal" of the treaty is the "channel" claimed by the United States.

Great Britain and Russia by their subsequent acts conclusively proved that the identity of the Portland Canal was not only never questioned until 1888 or 1898, but, on the other hand, that it was always shown by the maps and official acts of the governments to be the channel claimed by the United States.

NEGRO STATE IS NOW PLANNED FOR

Emperor of Sahara Would People His Country with Former Slaves From America.

London, Oct. 6.—M. Lebaudy, otherwise Jacques I., Emperor of Sahara, is still a mystery. The Mail has a theory that he desires to be handed down to posterity as the greatest benefactor of the negro race. With this idea he desires to establish a negro United States of Liberia, on the northwest coast of Africa, and people it from America. The same paper says Jacques I. employs as his prime mover and chief secretary of state a peer of the English realm, and in all likelihood when he goes back to his empire he will take with him several other British noblemen.

LEBAUDY PLANS EMPIRE FOR AMERICAN NEGROES

French Millionaire Seeks to Become Known as the Greatest Benefactor of the Black Race.

London, Oct. 6.—Jacques Lebaudy, the French millionaire, who is supposed to be scheming to establish an empire for himself on the west coast of Africa, in reality is planning a great state to be peopled by negroes from the United States.

Lebaudy desires to be handed down to posterity as the greatest benefactor of the negro race who ever lived. With this idea his intentions are purely pacific and commercial. He desires first to obtain the consent of the European powers, who claim to have influence over the territory on which he has designs, to establish along the northwest coast of Africa an empire larger than Rhodesia, to be entitled the United States of Liberia.

Here he proposes to found a negro state, peopled by negroes from America, especially from the Southern states, who would receive grants of land, and be encouraged to found a country of their own.

If Lebaudy secures all the territory he desires he will have a country rich in minerals, India rubber and coffee. He is not unwilling to engage some of his own vast capital in the enterprise, but he seeks to interest other capitalists in the venture.

Lebaudy employs as his prime minister and chief secretary of state a peer of the English realm, and in all likelihood when he goes back to his "empire" he will take with him several other British noblemen.

Lebaudy already has landed an armed force on the northwest African coast, has established a capital, and entered into treaties with the natives and Arabs, by whom, so far, he has been well received.

BLAME SCHWAB FOR FRAUDS

Serious Charges Are Made by Receiver of the United States Ship Building.

BONDS NOT GOOD

Declares They Were Issued Without Consideration, With No Security, But Mortgages Later.

New York, Oct. 6.—Fraudulent practices in the formation of the United States Shipbuilding company were charged against Charles M. Schwab, D. Leroy Dresser, Lewis Nixon, John S. Hyde, E. W. Hyde, Charles R. Hanscom, I. M. Scott, Charles J. Canda, Horace W. Gause and John W. Young by Receiver James Smith in the United States Circuit court.

The charges are contained in the answer filed by the receiver to the actions recently instituted against the company and himself as receiver by the Mercantile Trust company and the New York Security and Trust company, the former to foreclose its mortgage as trustee for a 5 per cent mortgage bond issue of $16,000,000 and the latter to foreclose its mortgage, also as trustee, upon a bond issue of $10,000,000.

Says Bonds Are Void.

Specifically Mr. Smith alleges, in his answer to the suit of the New York Security and Trust company, that the Bethlehem Steel company's works, worth not more than $7,200,000 to $10,000,000, was brought into the United States Shipbuilding company on the basis of $30,000,000, the transaction being fraudulent and to the great injury of the creditors, bondholders, and stockholders of the shipbuilding company. Mr. Smith further charges that the shares that the shipbuilding company issued in effecting this transaction constituted full payment for the stock of the steel company, and that the bonds mentioned in the complaint were, therefore, issued without consideration, and null and void, and that the mortgage given to secure the bonds is likewise null and void. He further alleges that Mr. Schwab, in receiving the bonds and stock, became justly indebted to the shipbuilding company in the sum of $20,000,000, through the shareholders' liability act of New Jersey, under whose laws of the defendant company was organized. By reason of this, it is claimed, the bonds have been fully paid, and the receiver, Mr. Smith, is entitled to an offset for $20,000,000.

Directors Not Qualified.

It is also alleged that the persons acting as directors of the defendant company were not qualified to act as such, not being bona fide holders of stock in the shipbuilding company.

Receiver Smith next contends that Mr. Schwab and his associates, to further defraud the defendant company, conspired with the directors of the company to insert certain provisions in the charter of the company to enable them to control its affairs and to acquire its property at less than its true value.

Charges are also made that Mr. Schwab caused the shipbuilding company to default in its interest, forcing its insolvency, thereby wrecking it, and enabling Mr. Schwab and his associates to acquire its assets.

Charges Collusion.

It is charged likewise that Mr. Schwab and his associates acted in collusion with "a so-called reorganization committee" caused the interest to be withheld, by refusing to permit the directors to meet, whereby funds might have been secured from some other source to meet the outstanding obligations.

The promoters at the present time own at least $10,000,000 of the bonds and $9,000,000 of common and $9,000,000 of the preferred stock of the company. The claim is made that there was no real consideration for the bonds and that they are, therefore, null and void and without force.

MUST PAY TAXES TWICE OVER NOW

Foreigners Who Aided Rebels Must Again Settle Their Dues.

Port of Spain, Island of Trinidad, Oct. 6.—Emissaries of President Castro, at Ciudad Bolivar, Venezuela, have orders to collect forcibly the taxes and custom house duties already paid by importers to the revolutionists from May, 1902, to August, 1903, the period during which the revolutionists occupied that city. The amount demanded is about $1,000,000.

The foreigners, including the firms of Blohm & Co. (German), Palazzi & Co. (French), Boccardo & Co. (Italian), and Dalton & Co. (American), have refused to pay.

Attorney General Knox has returned to Washington from an extended vacation.

OCTOBER WEATHER AS SCHEDULED

DR. HICKS HAS THUS FAR BEEN RIGHT.

GOOD FOR THE FARMERS

The Potato Crop May Be Saved From Further Rotting by Good Weather.

The Rev. Ira Hicks of St. Louis, who has been forecasting atmospheric conditions with remarkable accuracy, arranged the weather just about right for his predictions in Janesville, for he said that there would be numerous rain storms and humid atmosphere during the first days of the month and that described the weather in Rock county quite well for the beginning of October.

He said: "Cloudy and threatening weather will prevail as October comes in, but the barometer will fall, the temperature will rise, and active storms of rain, wind, lightning, and thunder will touch many localities about the second and third." He further said that there might then be a partial recession of the disturbed weather accompanied with a brief rise of the barometer but that storm conditions might return again about the fifth. While yesterday was cloudy in the afternoon and there were appearances of rain being imminent, these passed away in the evening but today has fulfilled the predictions given out. There is no certainty for Hower City people to go by, however, concerning tomorrow. Hicks says that this is another time when violent West India storms are exceedingly likely, and that all exposed regions around our southern coast should watch for indications of such conditions. He thinks that rains in a "progressive way" are likely to last possibly through the 7th to the 11th and that the "northern sides" of the storms will wind up with signs of early winter, "rain will turn to sleet and snow in the extreme north and the barometer will rise fast and high. Then the northerly gales will rush down over the northwest bringing danger of bad freezing. The pivotal time for the general mixup of the elements will not be over 48 hours from Monday the 6th. The next storm period will show itself around the 14th, 15th, and 16th, and the best indicator of these storms is the faithful barometer. From the 18th to the 23rd is expected to be the next storm period and then Janesvilleites had best get out their winter clothes according to Hicks, who says that there will be plenty of cold northerly winds around the 25th and 26th, when more rain may be expected which may turn into snow in the northerly sections.

FORSAKE TOBACCO FOR SUGAR-BEETS

John Timmons, Who Has Given Up Culture, Predicts Widespread Change.

"This is my last year with tobacco; I have been raising it for twenty years and am going to quit," said John Timmons, who resides on the Beloit road about three miles from Janesville, in speaking of general crop conditions Sunday. Mr. Timmons says that sugar beets will occupy his attention in the future. The tobacco land is suited to them and with an average yield of 15 tons an acre which will sell for $4.50 in the market the returns will be about as large as from a good yield of tobacco.

Beets Are Underground
"The beets are underground and we don't have to run any risk from high winds and frosts. Then, again, the tobacco market is a good deal of a gamble and one can never tell what he is going to get for his crop. During the hard times of '93 and '94 I did not sell my crop. I put it through the sweating and finally after much effort disposed of it at five cents in '95. About that time the travelling men were smoking pipes and few cigars were being sold. In 1896 the market brightened up and if I had retained my holdings, sold at a loss in '95, until then I could have gotten ten cents a pound.

Expects Great Change
"Sugar beets," continued Mr. Timmons, "can be raised at much less cost than tobacco. The large amount of labor required at its present high price makes the cost price to the grower a larger one." In his opinion many acres heretofore devoted to tobacco will be turned over to sugar beets in the next few years. "If you can't sell your beets you can use them for fodder; but if you can't sell your tobacco you can use it for nothing," and this sort of reasoning is bound to appeal to the farmer who has had a tobacco crop or two ruined by the storms. Mr. Timmons says that the tobacco crop this year has been a good one and the price for what has been sold has ranged from eight to eleven cents.

Colored Man Is Delegate.
New Orleans, Oct. 6.—James E. Porter, colored, has been elected a delegate to the American Federation of Labor, which will assemble in Boston Nov. 7.

Woman Is Burned by Gasoline.
Emporia, Kan., Oct. 6.—Mrs. H. A. Hanlin attempted to fill a gasoline stove from a picher and was burned almost to a crisp and will die.

Have you stomach trouble, indigestion, constipation, bad feeling after eating? Take Rocky Mountain Tea. If it fails to cure you, will refund your money, 35 cents. Smith's Pharmacy.

GAME WARDENS AFTER HUNTERS

Are Yet Busy on the Reports From County Clerks Throughout the State.

Recently Game Warden Overbeck sent out a number of letters of inquiry to the different county clerks, soliciting information as to the localities where the most violations of the game laws existed, and where hunting was carried on extensively without the license as required. The idea was to increase the watchfulness of the deputy game warden in those localities and by having special deputies sent out to keep down the number of violations. The county clerks were to get their information from the number of licenses issued from the different parts of the county. As this is rather a stalwart section it is possible that some extra deputies may be sent out in this vicinity, especially around Lake Koshkonong, and some of Janesville's prominent hunters may yet be "nabbed" without the permit. This action of the game warden was taken on account of the large number of complaints that were received at Madison, sometimes as many as thirty in a day, sent out by law-abiding hunters who had procured licenses but who were aware of a large number in their neighborhood who were hunting with impunity without the permit. It is thought that this method will lessen the number of violations of the law.

The number of resident hunting licenses has increased over 1,000 above what it was at the same time a year ago and the increase above the same period two years ago is 5,000. In a few counties there is a falling off, but the increases much more than make up the difference.

REV. FATHER GOES TO SHULSBURG

The Rev. Father James Mullen Leaves Janesville for New Field of Labor.

A change of interest in Catholic circles is the recent appointment of Rev. Father James Mullen to the church at Shulsbury, where he will act as assistant priest to the Rev. Father Kinsella. Father Mullen has been assistant to the Very Rev. Dean E. M. McGinnity at St. Patrick's church and his loss from Janesville will be greatly felt, for during his residence in this city since last January he has made many friends and has been a powerful factor in church circles.

A native of Ireland, and for some time a resident there, from thence going to Australia where for eight years he was engaged in the work of the church, he has had varied experience in the work of the church. Many friends in the city will wish him success in the new field.

HUSTLER IN ZION IS ENTHUSIASTIC

Arthur Newcomb Will Help in the Crusade to New York.

A former well known Janesville boy, Arthur Newcomb, has joined Dowle's forces on the shores of Lake Michigan, and has become a hustler in the first rank in Zion City. He was formerly employed in newspaper work here, but is now helping the Dowleites make preparations for their invasion of New York. "Tell me the Second" expects to make a take-off of about $50,000,000 from the crusade into the biggest city in the United States. So confident is he of the result of the spreading of the faith in other quarters of the globe, that plans are under way for the starting of two more cities like the one in Illinois and the statement is made that these towns will be an actual fact inside of five years.

Embezzlement Is Charged.
St. Louis, Oct. 6.—J. Welles Reed, formerly cashier of the Los Angeles branch of the California Fruit Canners' association, has been arrested here on the charge of embezzlement.

...Forty Years AGO...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Tuesday, October 6, 1863.—The sale of the popular song, "When this cruel war is over," has reached nearly 150,000 copies, and the copperhead papers talk mysteriously of its "political significance." What do they think of that other song, "The Little Cry of Freedom," which is spreading like wild fire through the army?

Personal.—Mrs. John Brown (wife of the veritable John Brown, of Kansas annals) is in town at the American house, with her family, on her way to a new home west of us, where she may live in retirement. Mrs. B. has made a good impression upon all who have called upon her, and her evident anxiety to escape notoriety, which is necessarily attached to the wife of John Brown, invariably elicits sympathy in her behalf. —McGregor News.

Blondin almost killed himself in Sevilla, Spain, recently. While on his rope, during an exhibition in that city, with fireworks on his head he found himself burning, and in trying to relieve himself he slipped and fell, but luckily caught one foot on the rope, and with the utmost grace saved his brains from being dashed out.

SANITARY SHAVE IS NOW REQUIRED

BARBERS' RULES ISSUED HAVE FORCE OF LAW

OBJECT TO CHECK DISEASES

Sterilization and Cleansing of All Instruments Are Strictly Enjoined.

After three months of arduous and unrelenting toil for the modest stipend of $3.00 per diem for actual service rendered and three cents a mile for all territory covered for the common good of the state, the barbers' board has issued its new code of rules and copies are being sent to every boss barber in Wisconsin by Secretary M. H. Wiltaker, of this city.

Clerical Work Enormous.
Many of the rules are modeled on those adopted and now enforced by the board of health of New York City. But in some instances they have been so altered as to conform with the more rigid requirements demanded by the people of Wisconsin. The work on them has of necessity been somewhat retarded by the voluminous correspondence that has been carried on with the 1,800 or more shops in the state, in connection with the license cards, certificates, and inquiries concerning the various phases of the new regime.

Purpose of Rules.
The public has been anxiously awaiting the appearance of the new rules since the board was organized on July 5. As they now stand, approved by the state board of health, they have the force of law and all violations are to be reported and the offenders punished. The entire purpose of the code is to compel the observance of all reasonable precautions against the transmission of disease. One of the most important regulations forbids the shaving of any person having erysipelas or any other contagious affection of the skin, unless such person be provided with an individual cup and shaving apparatus.

To Sterilize Utensils.
Hair-brushes must be combed after using and both brushes and combs cleansed with ammonia or solution of borax after each day's work. Razors, shears, clippers, and all other instruments must be sterilized in formaldehyde or trichlorol after being used on persons suffering from any eruption of the skin. No barber must undertake to treat any such eruption, but shall advise consultation with a physician.

Shop to Be Sanitary
The shop must be kept in a sanitary condition and no portion of it used as a cooking or sleeping apartment. Waste receptacles must be cleansed with boiling water once each day. The use of finger bowls, powder puffs, and sponges is forbidden and all astringents used to control bleeding or for other purposes shall be in powder or liquid form. Crystals of alum and blue stone shall not be used.

Clean Towels For All.
An antiseptic solution must be used on each person after shaving. Fresh and clean towels must be used for each patron and all towels must be boiled before using again. Close shaves are tabooed by the board in recommendations appended to the rules.

STANDING ROOM ONLY AT MYERS'

Flora De Voss Co. Opens Week's Engagement Before a Big House.

There was standing room only at the Myers Grand last evening and the big house was well pleased with the presentation of "Tennessee Partner" by the Flora De Voss Co. A few trifling alterations had been made in the play, the name of the leading character having been changed from "Tennessee" to "Idaho," which makes the title somewhat of a misnomer. Miss De Voss portrayed this part in a pleasing manner. W. J. Turner in the comedy part of "G. Windy Skinner," the relic of '67, was a prime favorite with the audience and his work was excellent.

Miss Louise Taylor as "Mrs. Skinner," was also very good and the same may be said of Miss Lehman as "Blanche Vasco," the notorious woman who reforms in the last act. William Fitzsimmons, who had the leading male part of "Blanche Cameron," the gentlemanly card man, did a trifle too much declaiming and a trifle too much acting, but the audience was satisfied with his work.

Between the acts Ernest Pitson sang, W. J. Turner delivered a monologue, and some illustrated songs and moving pictures were presented. The opera house orchestra was augmented by the Fortuna brothers, harp and violin artists. Tonight the five act melodrama, "Man and Master," will be presented.

Songs from the Hearts of Women
Advance copies of a new book, fresh from the publishers, A. C. McClurg & Co., has just made its appearance, and it promises to be the most popular of any yet produced by the author, Colonel Nicholas Smith.

The title of the book, which contains some 300 pages, and is neatly bound, is "Songs from the Hearts of Women." In speaking of the book the author says:

"My desire in compiling this volume is to bring together in one small and attractive volume some of the finest hymns which have come from the hearts of women."

He finds ample reason why the book should be devoted exclusively to such hymns, in the fact that "the language of woman's soul in the hours of sorrow, had given the church many of the tenderest and sweetest of the world's best hymns."

The volume contains one hundred hymns with sketches of the authors, and covering a period of 200 years, from Madam Guyon to Mary A. Lathrop.

Most of these hymns have long been associated with the music of the church, and around them cluster many pleasing or sacred memories.

The aim of the author has been to select hymns of character and, as he says, "The book may be considered unique, for it embraces in one volume of convenient size the finer hymns which have come from the experience of women, and it gives in connection therewith biographical and historical notes."

One of the sketches which fairly illustrates 100 others contained in the book, is a little scrap of unwritten history that has to do with the Moody and Sankey tour of Great Britain in 1874.

The two great evangelists were about to take a train from Glasgow to Edinburgh when Mr. Sankey bought a copy of "The Christian Age." After reading the news he noticed in the poet's corner a little poem entitled "The Lost Sheep," which has since become famous as the "Ninety and Nine."

Mr. Sankey was very much impressed by the poem, and after reading it over two or three times, clipped it out and placed it in his scrap book.

A few nights later Mr. Moody spoke on "The Good Shepherd" to a vast audience in Edinburgh. At the close of the sermon he asked Mr. Sankey to sing something appropriate to the meeting.

The little poem flashed into the mind of the singer but he knew no music for such a metre. The thought came to him to try an impromptu air, and seating himself at the little organ he struck out, not knowing where he would land, but inspiration came with the song, and the vast audience was moved to tears as the lost sheep was followed in his wanderings.

Back in one of the galleries was a woman who was deeply affected, for the song, so now, brought back the memory of her sister, the author, who died in obscurity and yet whose hymns were destined to be sung for generations.

"The Ninety and Nine" was composed by Miss Elizabeth C. Clephane of Melrose, Scotland, in 1863. "Songs from the Hearts of Women" abounds in sketches of this kind. The book is dedicated to Mr. Smith's old time friend, Ogden H. Fethers. It will be of peculiar interest to Janesville people because the author has so many personal friends in the city. The book may be found at either Sutherland's or Skelly's.

Within the past three days at least 75 large cases of the various breakfast foods which are advertised in the papers and on the billboards have arrived at the freight office. This seems to indicate that Janesville along with her neighbors has accumulated the pre-digested food habit.

Engineer G. H. Smith reported for work this morning.

St. Paul Road. Engineer Walter Specht returned to his work on the Mineral Point division last night.

Claim Agent J. H. McKevitt, of Milwaukee, was at the depot today.

State Railroad Commissioner J. W. Thomas of Madison, Wis., has started the work of the inspection of the books of the railroad companies. Commissioner Thomas will be in Chicago in connection with the work a large part of the time for several weeks.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the Grand Trunk and Western railway and its subsidiary lines was held yesterday. All the old directors were reelected and later the former officers were reappointed, with the exception of the Detroit and Toledo Short Line railway, which was only recently acquired.

Indications are that all the western passenger rate troubles will be amicably adjusted within a day or two, and that the Rock Island will be induced to rejoin the association. The big financial interests in New York, it is said, are looking with disfavor for some time on the feuds and dissensions of the general passenger agents of the various roads regarding an interchangeable mileage ticket and other matters. The edict is said to have gone forth that these feuds must cease, and that amicable relations between the various roads must be reestablished so as to bring about a strict maintenance of rates.

NATURE'S OWN CURE.

Hyomel Cures Catarrh Without Dangerous Drugging of the Stomach.

Not until Hyomel was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a remedy for catarrh was known.

This remedy is breathed through the Hyomel Inhaler for a few minutes four times a day, and during that time every particle of air taken into the fair passages and lungs is impregnated with the germ killing and health giving Hyomel. It is the only treatment that cures catarrh.

Stomach drugging often causes disordered digestion or brings on some other diseases and never makes a permanent cure of catarrh. Hyomel not only kills the germs in the throat and nose but penetrates to the minutest air cells in the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood. It frees the mucous membrane from poisonous microbes and gives perfect health.

A complete outfit costs but $1.00, and includes an Inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomel for several weeks treatment.

King's Pharmacy and Peoples Drug Co. have so much faith in the merit of Hyomel that they agree to return the money to any purchaser who may be dissatisfied.

THE EBB TIDE.

While times are prosperous, and the outlook not discouraging, the fact is nevertheless apparent, that the crest of the wave has been reached and the ebb tide has set in. The disturbing elements in Wall street, which have prevailed for many weeks, is being felt throughout the country, and conservatism is rapidly taking the place of speculation. Henry Clews in writing on the situation says:

"For some time past intrinsic values received scant, if any, consideration, the extremities of a few rich holders obliging further liquidation at a time when buying power was limited, either through exhaustion or lack of courage. There has been just as much unreasoning distrust regarding security values as there was unreasoning confidence a year ago, and in nine short months market opinion has plunged from dizzy heights of exaltation to the very depths of depression, until declines were reached out of all proportions to any changes in intrinsic conditions. Statistical investigation goes to show that security values in the United States advanced about 4,500 millions after President McKinley's first election, and that the present downward movement represents a shrinkage of fully 3,500 millions, showing that the boom advance has largely disappeared. Such estimates are, of course, only approximate, but they are probably not far out of the way, and very likely they at least represent the proportionate decline. So extensive and rapid a shrinking at this is nothing less than panic of the severest type; and, while concentrated banking interests have fortunately been able to prevent a sudden crash and so save the country from vastly worse disaster, it has not been able to prevent a drastic readjustment of credit, which is responsible for much recent liquidation."

The fact is also cited that liquidation is not confined to the money centers, but that it has been going on in all parts of the country until the supply of money in the hands of bankers, is $124,000,000 larger than last year.

Crops are now secured, and ample funds are ready to handle them, but the money for luxuries, as for extensive building and other improvements will not be forthcoming, because the heavy losses in stocks falls very largely upon men who furnish the money for these enterprises.

The high price of material, as well as the unsettled condition of the labor market, in connection with the fact that the building season has practically closed, will very naturally result in enforced idleness, which is always a forerunner of hard times.

The question of work and not the question of wages, is likely to be the problem of absorbing interest in the near future, in many departments of industry.

While there is nothing to indicate that the experiences of 1893 and 94 will be repeated, yet the spirit of retrenchment will prevail, and both capital and labor will feel its effects.

TEACHERS FOR THE PHILIPPINES.

The Civil Service commission has just received a call from the Philippine government for 150 male teachers, with salaries as follows: 25 at $1,200; 70 at $1,000, and 55 at $800 per annum. It is desired to secure the teachers without unnecessary delay, and an examination will be held on October 19-20 in various cities.

Peace has been established in the Philippines and the conditions of living are improving every month. This examination, therefore, affords an excellent opportunity for young men to enter an attractive service with excellent opportunities for promotion. Teachers appointed are eligible for promotion to higher grades in the service, the salaries ranging from $900 to $2,000 for teachers and from $1,500 to $2,500 for division superintendents. The Commission suggests that those who apply for this examination should be devoted to their profession and conscientious, energetic, and successful workers.

For application blanks and further information concerning the scope of the examination, transportation, conditions of employment, etc., applicants should apply to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., or to the secretary of the civil service board at any post office where letter carrier service has been established.

Persons who are unable to file their formal applications in order to receive admission cards to the examination, if they will notify the commission by letter or telegram in sufficient time to ship examination papers and arrange for their examination.

The above circular has just been received, and will be of interest to young men and women who are looking for situations in school work. Our new possessions are rapidly developing and the little red school house is recognized as an efficient pioneer.

All sorts of rumors are afloat regarding the next candidate for governor. Congressman Jenkins name is frequently mentioned, while there are echoes of Isaac Stephenson in the air. Senator Stout, of Menominee is the latest, so it will be noticed that there is no lack of good material. Anything to redeem the state from La Folletteism will satisfy the people.

The Chicago Federation of Labor has just discovered that many union workmen are victims of a system of graft established by foremen. The men are assessed from $1.00 to $3.00 for the benefit of heads of departments who claim a percentage of wages for finding them employment. It is estimated that thousands of dollars has been paid out in this way.

The old employees of the National Biscuit company, are suing for peace, and after a lock out of several months, are ready to go to work at the old scale, while the colored waiters of Chicago are in a starving condition, and are calling for aid. It don't require much of an effort to strike but it is frequently a slow process to recover from the effects.

Dowie is about to start on his New York pilgrimage with 3,000 disciples. He will spend a month in New York, and after founding a Zion city in Sodom, will go to Europe to stir up the natives abroad. What a Vanderbilt the old prophet would have made, had he been well balanced.

Golden Rule Jones shinned up a brass pole in the fire station at Toledo, Ohio, to disprove the assertion that he is growing old and losing physical vigor. There are no insects on Jones, but he will never reach the summit of political ambition.

Southern Wisconsin is highly favored, so far as storms are concerned. The northern part of the state was swept by a tornado last Saturday, while a similar storm raged in northern Illinois, at the same time.

Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana, advocates a measure for quick delivery of special letters to farmers who are on telephone lines. He would have the postmaster open the letters and send them over the wire. "The world do move."

The State School for the Deaf at Delavan enrolls some 30 new scholars. The new Supt. Prof. Walker, is popular, and with a number of new teachers, the outlook for the year is promising.

If $70,000 pays for 72 game wardens in 1902, how many can the state support in 1903? That all depends upon the activity of the bureau in selling licenses.

With no more fairs on tap, what will the governor do for an occupation.

PRESS COMMENT

Shawano Journal: There's one thing certain, the governor did not take in all those fairs for his health.

Waushara Argus: The Oshkosh Times says, Governor La Follette can make more dates than a hired girl. Perhaps the editor knows.

Eau Claire Telegram: A national convention in April or the middle of May would mean a white heat in Wisconsin politics about the time of the "January thaw."

Phillips Bee: "Money is getting closer." This is a Wall street term, which doesn't mean that it is getting closer to you, but, rather, that it is getting farther away.

Madison Journal: If what the governor is saying about Wisconsin is true, isn't it about time to take the eagle down from the flag staff on the capitol and give him a little fresh air.

Milwaukee News: Since Governor La Follette started in to make the county fair circuit, the Stalwarts have become thoroughly convinced that the agricultural show is a snare and a delusion.

Milwaukee Free Press: Wise horse men are now telling how the wind shield, under the protection of which two trotting horses have made two minutes time, is really a detriment. It may be, but it is certainly not a very serious detriment.

Green Bay Gazette: According to the Milwaukee papers, Mayor David S. Rose has been warned by his physician not to attempt to endure the strain of another political campaign. That physician is evidently skilled in diagnosing political conditions.

WOMEN'S HAPPIEST DAY.

"What, in your opinion, is the happiest day in a woman's life?"

"The day her baby first licks 'mother,'" ventured the young matron.

"Every day when her husband comes home from business," contributed the bride.

"The day she sails for Europe for the first time," said the girl who likes to travel.

"The day she receives a letter from the publishers saying her first book is accepted," voted the scribbler of the party.

MOVING FACTORY FROM CHICAGO

HOOK AND EYE COMPANY HAVE SHIPPED MACHINES.

ARE LOOKING AT LOCATIONS

Have Decided on Nothing Definite Yet, as to the Factory Site.

Work has actually begun in Chicago in the moving of the U-P-H Hook and Eye company to Janesville. President Mills said this afternoon that the machines were being shipped today morning and would be shipped today arriving here in the morning. He has wired his chief machinist to come on from the east at once to look over the locations and help him to decide which will be the best for the new factory.

No Location Yet
Thus far Mr. Mills has decided upon no location in preference to any other. He is this afternoon looking at the building known as the Woodruff factory at the corner of Ravine and Franklin streets and if the factory is located there it may be with the idea of buying the property within a short time. Mr. Mills is also talking of the lower floor of the furniture factory in Spring Brook and will look this property over before making any definite decision.

Business Talk
Mr. Mills is a firm believer in advertising and says that the results of his last week's experience in selling stock through the columns of the newspapers has more than ever firmly convinced him in the worth of a daily paper to sell anything. One lady this morning took eleven hundred shares and many others have asked that blocks of stock be reserved for them.

NEW MAN HERE

Gazette Secures Expert Pressman from Chicago.

The Gazette is pleased to announce the addition to its mechanical force of Michael Halsinger of Chicago, who assumed charge of the press rooms yesterday. Mr. Halsinger comes direct from a large printing establishment in the city, and is an expert pressman. His experience covers every class of press work—three color and the finest half tone printing, and is competent in every way. Mr. Halsinger's engagement with the Gazette is merely in line with the advanced ideas installed in the entire plant. The printing department of the Gazette is equipped to handle the highest grades of printing, its artisans, material, and machinery are the best obtainable and the fact that many large book runs and catalogs have been completed recently or are in process at the present time, are evidence of capability. Chas. L. Mohr is superintendent of the department and will be pleased to give any information or estimates on work at any time.

A CRITICISM OF A COMEDY.

The Opening of the Yale University Public Lecture Course—Marshall in "Twelfth Night."
The Yale University Public Lecture Course was opened by Mr. Marshall Darrach of New York, who is a well established favorite in New Haven. He gave for his program Shakespeare's rollicking comedy, "The Twelfth Night, or What You Will." His presence is imposing, his enunciation clear, his colorature varied.

With absolutely no accessories of make-up, costume or artificial light he stands before his hearers and fades from one character into another as pictures from one character into another as pictures from a stereoscopic change. One minute he is the love-sick Duke Orsino reciting his passion for the Lady Olivia in high flown euphuistic phrases, and the next the coarse and roystering Sir Toby Welch, or the jolly Maria, or the stupid but amusing Sir Andrew Aguecheek, or the clever and fascinating Viola. Mr. Darrach comes to the Congregational church Oct. 16th, 23 and 30th.

A BRIGHT SIGN

A. McLellan Illuminates North Main Street.

North Main street is illuminated in a noticeable manner by a new electrical sign which has recently been placed in front of Alex. McLellan's place. It is one of the latest ideas in this class of work having in connection a motor which operates the lights so that they change every minute. Mr. McLellan's place has always been popular and the new device over the door indicates to his friends that he is thoroughly up-to-date in his business methods.

CUT IN HOURS AT THE C. & N. W. SHOPS

Notice Issued This Morning of Reduction to an Eight Hour Schedule.

The men in the North-Western shops received notice Monday of a reduction of the 10 hour schedule to 8 hours. There is a corresponding cut in wages and the new arrangement affects about fifteen men. The new hours are from 7:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. The cut is probably only temporary and is made in accordance with the general policy of retrenchment at this season of the year.

ANOTHER FACTORY WANTS LOCATION

LETTER RECEIVED BY THE MAYOR FROM CHICAGO FIRM.

MAKES MAILING MACHINES

A Big Plant Will Come to Janesville if Some Stock is Taken.

This morning a letter was received by the mayor from the Cox Multi-Mailer company of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, to the effect that the concern wishes to come to Janesville and locate permanently in the city. They claim their intention is to build a large plant. They are not looking for any bonus, but expect that the citizens will take some of the stock.

The company has now a branch office in Chicago and are getting ready to begin the manufacture of their machines which they claim will be as big sellers as the Mergenthaler Linotype.

New Machines
The apparatus is to take the place of the hand machines now in general use in newspaper offices throughout the country to stamp the printed names and addresses of subscribers on the wrappers of newspapers, magazines and various publications.

In the circular of the company which accompanied the letter to Mayor Wilson, they state that the multi-mailer is one of the wonders of the mechanical world, is extremely simple, light running, and durable, not fragile or complicated like the linotype, nor cumbersome or costly like the web press. The machine does the work of four skilled men or the work of one man in one-fourth the time.

No Debts
According to their statement there are no debts and the company has capital stock to 300,000 shares with a par value of $10 per share non-assessable. A limited amount of the stock is offered at $2.50 or 25 per cent. of the par value.

They claim that there will be a big demand for the machines and that after the company has started they will employ a large force of men.

IS CHARGED WITH POINTING A PISTOL

J. E. Phillips, Superintendent of the Art Study Co., Appeared in Court Today.

J. E. Phillips, superintendent of the Art Study Co., appeared in municipal court this morning to answer to the charge of carrying concealed weapons and aiming and pointing a pistol. The case was adjourned to October 15.

Complaint of Employee
The complaint against Mr. Phillips was made by Andrew Platt, former employee of the concern, on Tuesday, September 29. This was the day after the strike. Platt was one of the strikers. He claims that he sought the office on the Tuesday mentioned to get his pay and that having $25 coming to him, he was offered $26. When he persisted in his demands for $28, he alleges that he was told to take the $26 and get out. When he did not obey the order, he alleges that Phillips drew a revolver on him and told him that if he came back he would shoot him.

Warrant Last Night
Judge Fiffeld scrutinized the complaint very carefully and finally issued a warrant at 4:30 last night. Mr. Phillips has an entirely different version of the affair. He says that the men crowded into his office and assumed a threatening attitude and that certain measures for self-protection became necessary. He denies most of the statements made by Platt.

Wraps, Short and Long

WAISTS FOR DAY AND EVENING WEAR

THOUGH we are apt to get our hot weather at this season of the year, the world of femininity is just now interested in cloaks and coats. Almost everything goes save the short blouse and the Eton. Fashion writers still speak of the Eton and bolero, but they are more written of than worn now. The most approved wrap of the fall, and we feel confident in affirming it, will be the most approved for the winter, is the tight-fitting, three-quarters model.

These coats are noticeable for the number of their seams. When possible, one should employ the services of only a good tailor for the construction of a coat of this kind; with the straight-front corset reigning, no poor gown-maker ought to attempt the difficult not such an extravagant thing to add one to the wardrobe. They can be purchased now at greatly reduced prices, the big shops tumbling everything on the bargain counters rather than carrying anything over. The model pictured this week is of cream broadcloth trimmed with tassels and flat ornaments, touches of color on the collar and at the bottom of the sleeves.

And old and tried friend, banished for a long while, is back with us this year, lusty and important—and that is blue serge. We have had many woolens of high-sounding names for several seasons, and have tried to forget we ever were addicted to just common serge, but now we can employ this material and yet be fashionable. Put some white with it, or some bright red; for white and blue, red and blue, are garment. It was hard enough to get the tight fit for the tailor made of six years back, but that was easy compared with the problem to-day, when large hips and plump curves are not at all the thing. But we need none of us despair; after seeing a few good examples, we may learn something of the trick ourselves.

Besides the close three-quarters coat, one sees knee-lengths and hip-lengths in loose styles. Some of the former are on the kimono style; some are what we have grown accustomed to call the automobile; others are built on simple straight lines, closer fitting than those lately in vogue. For the wrap for rather common wear, blue is the color of the hour, dark or bluish. And if a touch of white is added, one will be following the latest fancy.

Evening cloaks, though elaborate, can be safely constructed at home, there not being a great deal of fit required. Though the cloaks look sumptuous, they need not cost very much; a bargain of lining-silk can be picked up here, a bit of lace there, and for the outside light-weight cloth with a heavy inter-lining will answer very well. It is much more suitable to try to economize on dressmaker and material for one of these than when getting the street gown, which appears in the broad light of day, and must stand much wear and tear.

In the shorter coats we observe white is a prime favorite, and as most of these white wraps can be easily cleaned, it is avored combinations. Red velvet for a narrow crushed belt and as finish for a stock is especially soft and pretty; also shaded ribbon, shading from old rose to geranium red, might well be chosen.

Pipings will be used very much the coming season. Pplings of gay silk in different colors are used on the same gown; yellow, black and white have been observed on a gown of dark blue, but personally we prefer pplings of the single color. Buttons are employed to emphasize the color of the trimming, and embroidered buttons are the caprice of the moment, as well as buttons embroidered in bands. A dark, plain frock may be embellished and rendered more modish by addition of some of these accessories, but the tendency for over-trimming should be restrained.

Heavy mercerized cotton waists, which resemble raw silk, are shown in plaids as well as in dark blues or reds. They cost something, but are very durable and wash well. Ponques in natural colors, but flecked with gay silk, will make nice blouses for wear indoors, and should not be lined.

The epaulette is a decided feature of the fall waist, and is very long. It may be made of galloon, with a band of the same down the front of the waist and for the cuffs.

We picture one of the prettiest fancy waists lately seen. It is fashioned of black chiffon, black velvet ribbon and white lace. The waist should be lined with thin silk.

TRUE STATUS OF CHURCH QUESTION

Rev. Barrington Makes Some Corrections to Telegraphic Reports.

To the Editor: Last night's Gazette, in its telegraphic news, contained an article on the Episcopal church that may be somewhat misleading.

In the first place, however, many branches there may be in the church, there is, there can be, but one head, the Lord Jesus Christ.

In this American branch of the church, however, the question has arisen: "Shall the presiding bishop continue to be entitled to his office by reason of his seniority, or shall he be elected?" The reason for the suggested change is evident. The senior bishop is a man well advanced in years and, on account of the infirmities of age, has often been unable to attend his duties. Hence, it has been suggested that, if the office was elective, a younger man, one whose health and strength was unimpaired, might not only hold the office but fulfill its duties.

Although the Churchman in its editorial said: "The democracy of the church demands that the whole body shall have its representative and the efficiency of the church as an organization, equally demands a chief executive." Yet the above is the sum and substance of the discussion. As to the question of provinces with their archbishops, that is another matter. But of this one thing we may be assured: While time shall last, the American branch of the Church Catholic, known legally as the Protestant Episcopal church in the United States of America, will never tolerate even the suggestion of any "personal head," but that One who for time and eternity, is the "Head of the body" of the body, the church, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Yours truly,

A. H. BARRINGTON.

Brown, and its chief caretaker, Joseph Brooks. Miss C. M. Hale, formerly secretary and stenographer for Superintendent Brown, resigned her place because, as she said: "I could not stand the fare, the continual complaints of the children and because I was compelled to buy nourishing food to prevent my health from running down."

The Game Was Called at 4:15 O'clock This Afternoon at Athletic Park.

The practice during the last week has been lively and the prospect of success in the battle this afternoon is thought to be good. In any case the game will show the local team where "they are at," so any weaknesses can be remedied before the more important game at Beloit with that school next Saturday. ### The Young Man's Chance.

The young man is in demand. If he fails to avail himself of some kind of an opportunity it is usually his own fault. The elder Vanderbilt once said that you could take a young man and stick him down anywhere and if he had the right kind of stuff in him he would get on and save a little money. This may be a strong statement, but there is a good deal of truth in it.
